

Media Release

For Immediate Release by Carrie Redman

Contact: Carrie Redman, Associate Director of Marketing & Community Relations
(585) 593-5700 ext. 514 - carrie.redman@thearcas.org

The Arc Allegany-Steuben Hosting Job Fair Thursday, Sept. 23rd

Discover the rewards of a career in direct support for people with disabilities at the Arc Allegany-Steuben's September 23rd Job Fair (8am-4pm). Talk to one of our Human Resource professionals about full-time, part-time and substitute opportunities, and learn more about a career that truly makes a difference.

Join us virtually or in person at any of the following locations: 50 Farnum Street (Wellsville), 46 Seneca Street (Hornell) and 1 Arc Way (Bath). Call 585-593-5700 x 517 to make an appointment, walk-in or schedule online at calendly.com/thearcasjobfair

The Arc Allegany-Steuben is one of 37 chapters of The Arc New York that offer comprehensive services and customized programs to support people with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families in achieving their desired quality of life. We are deeply dedicated to the people we support and their families who rely on our expertise to assist them in exploring service options in the community and finding meaningful opportunities for employment, lifelong education, and pursuit of personal goals to achieve their greatest potential.

XXX